

March 10, 2016

Dear friend of Armenian culture,

Now in its 65th year, the Armenian Night at the Pops is one of the cherished traditions of the Armenian community of Boston. Please join us for another exciting concert on Friday, May 27 at 8 PM, featuring the young and talented cellist Edvard Pogossian as soloist. He will join the Boston Pops Orchestra and maestro Keith Lockhart in a performance of the Tchaikovsky Rococo Variations for cello and orchestra.

Born in California to a musical family, Edvard is a sophomore at the Juilliard School in New York City where he recently won the Concerto Competition. As part of the award, he performed with the venerable school's orchestra in concerts in New York and Chicago under the direction of Itzhak Perlman.

The second half of the program, titled "A Broadway Evening with Sutton Foster," will feature the Tony Award winner Sutton Foster, the bona fide Broadway star and one of its leading ladies.

Enclosed you will find a ticket order form and a return envelope. Please reply by April 30th to take advantage of the special FACS discount, offering substantial savings over Box Office prices. Tickets can also be purchased online at www.FACSBoston.org.

FACS is able to bring exceptionally talented emerging artists to Boston audiences thanks to the generosity of its supporters. As always, we extend our sincere gratitude for your investment in our next generation of Armenian artists.

Friends of Armenian Culture Society

